JUDGE PARKER'S LETTER

Judge Parker's letter is a clear-out, straightforward presentation of the real issues in this campaign, without any resort to subterfuge or misrepresentation, such as we had in the letter of his opponent. It is mainly, forsooth, without bombast, free from cheap tricks, fair and honest. The case of the democratic party as made by its platform and its record is fully presented. The man who is honestly seeking the issues in the present campaign will find them here.

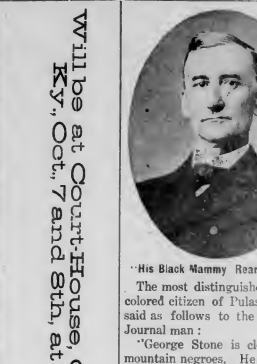

One of the most interesting passages in the letter is that in which Judge Parker promptly accepts the challenge of President Roosevelt, who, defending the executive pension order, which is charged as illegal, said: "It is easy to test our opponent's sincerity in the matter. The order in question is revocable at the pleasure of the executive. If our opponents come into power they can revoke this order. Will they authoritatively state that they intend to do this?" To this challenge Judge Parker says:

"This suggests the suspicion at least, that the order was made to create an issue—that it was supposed to present a strong strategic position in the battle of the hall. But as the making of that order was in my judgment, an attempt, though perhaps unwitting, encroachment upon the legislative power, and therefore unwarranted by the constitution, the challenge is accepted. If elected, I will revoke that order. But I go further and say that being done, it will contribute my effort toward the enactment of a law by which the pension of Congress and approved by the president that will give an age pension without reference to ability to the surviving heroes of the civil war, and under the provisions of which a pension may be accepted with dignity because of the accomplishments that it comes as just due from the people through their chosen representatives, and not as largest disbursement by their chief executive."

One other exceedingly interesting reference to the Roosevelt letter is contained in that portion of the letter relative to remedies for the trust evil. It will be recalled that Mr. Roosevelt's letter contained a sneering reference to Judge Parker's mention of the common law, the republican nominee evidently assuming that Judge Parker's reference was either a slip or evidence of ignorance of the law. To this Judge Parker says:

"Whether there is any common law which can be applied and enforced by the federal courts cannot be determined by the president or by a candidate for the presidency. The determination of this question was left by the people in framing the constitution to the judiciary, and not to the executive. The supreme court of the United States has recently considered this question, and in the case of the Western Union Telegraph Co. vs. the City of St. Louis, 207 U. S. 1, 131st volume of the United States supreme court reports, at page 92, it decided that common law principles could be applied by United States courts in cases involving the interstate commerce."

It will be recalled that Mr. Roosevelt's letter contained a sneering reference to Judge Parker's mention of the common law, the republican nominee evidently assuming that Judge Parker's reference was either a slip or evidence of ignorance of the law. To this Judge Parker says:

Will be at Court-House, Columbia, Ky., Oct. 7 and 8th, at night.

Will be at Court-House, Columbia, Ky., Oct. 7 and 8th, at night.

His Black Mammy Reared Him.
The most distinguished private colored citizen of Pulaski county said as follows to the Somerset Journal man:

"George Stone is close to the mountain negroes. He was reared from a baby boy by a black mammy, and in all his career as a lawyer he has never refused to defend a negro he believed to be guilty, whether paid or not; and nobody ever heard of him prosecuting a negro he knew in his younger days. The colored people have had nothing to do with this Hunter-Edwards scum and a hundred of them will support George Stone on election day."

MINERAL WATER.

It Has Been Recently Found on the Farm of C. C. Morrison, Taylor County.

This well is on the Campbellville and Greenburg roads, five miles from the former place and two from the latter. The well has been drilled and the water is as good as pure. It is situated on Mr. J. C. Morrison's place, who is making preparations to take a few barrels.

The following gives a full explanation: Agricul. Expt. Station, State College of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., July 20, 14, 1904. Mineral water sent by J. C. Morrison, Campbellville, Taylor County, Ky., July 18, 1904. The sample was received July 21, 1904, in pint bottle. The water smelled strongly of hydrogen sulphide and there was a deposit of sulphur in the bottle.

ANALYSIS.

The water contains 39.9 grains of solid matter to the gallon, composed mainly of chlorides and sulphates of sodium, calcium and magnesium, some calcium carbonate and traces of iron, potassium and lithium compounds and a trace of borates. The water contained also a very considerable quantity of hydrogen sulphide. Is very good saline sulphur water.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge,

We are authorized to announce that Hon. H. H. THURMAN, of Washington county, is a candidate for Circuit Judge in the district comprising the counties of Green, Taylor, Marion and Washington, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Since the editor of The Columbia Spectator was treed on his own proposition, and since our questions touched nothing else except the proposition at issue and required answers that he refused to give, he cries out that we are writing from a malicious standpoint. In his last issue he says: "The News, does not discuss Judge Parker's letter of acceptance at all, but devotes a column and a half to malicious, personal insinuations against The Editor of The Spectator. Its stock of petty spite and invective seems to be abundant; but, considering the source of this article, and remembering that the readers of both papers are acquainted with the facts, we will not be diverted from our course, having other and greater duties before us. The average reader of our county papers know the difference between sarcastic personalities and argument; knowing that the one is prompted by a heart of malice and the other is indulged in by those who are attempting to discuss live issues of the hour." Now, Mr. Editor, the battle was of your own choosing. You opened the ball by pointing out our inconsistency as appeared to you, and stated that we should be supporting the Populist nominees to be consistent. Had you read and obeyed that scriptural injunction, judge not, that ye be not judged, you would not have had a single paragraph directed against your support of Mr. Hunter and your support of Mr. Edwards. You undertook to administer some medicine to us, but when you were given a few spoonfuls under the old directions, "shake well before using," you cry out that back of all is malice on our part. You may indirectly bid for sympathy and dodge the issue, but the intelligent people of this community know that our article did not contain an unfair question nor intimate an insinuation that missed the mark when applied to your political life. We have no apology to offer and no harmony plea to enter for our position last week. You were held to the original proposition, in our article, but refused to measure up to your opportunity if you are at heart for pure political methods regardless of your own political fortunes. You have denounced Democrats in almost every conceivable manner. You stood for Hunter when he was on the big side; you joined the Edwards forces when it was clear that they were on the band wagon. You have denounced frauds as vehemmentally as any man in all this country, when directed against the party or party to which you cling, but have never unearthed anything but righteousness in your own camp. We have no more confidence in your sincerity for pure politics than we have in the average peanut-politician, notwithstanding your loud protestations to the contrary. You have appeared before the country, denouncing frauds with Goliath-like audacity, but never stated in one place long enough for a stone to hit you. If there is one man in this entire country who likes the big side above all other considerations we are impressed that you are that man. You may preach political purity. You may seek to impress the people that you love country above your party, that you will always approve the right and condemn the wrong, and yet it will take salt to make it palatable with us. We did not touch your personal life and have no desire to cast one insinuation against the sacredness of your honor and standing as a gentleman. It is your political position, your off and on, your do and don't attitude that is at issue. Your standing as a respected christian gentleman, your enterprising spirit are not molested. You are our County Judge, and so far as we know, one of the best in the State. We have heard that your political position was not of your own seeking, but a case of the office seeking the man—a condition that indicates the strong political standing you have with your party and the profound respect and admiration the entire people have for you as a competent man. You can't answer our questions and put yourself on record. You denounced the Democrats for throwing out the vote of some counties when contesting for State offices. Why is it a crime for us to ask you your opinion of throwing out the vote of Bell and Leslie counties and giving Mr. Thorne the nomination? If you believe it right to purchase a nomination, why conceal your opinion, if not, then explain how your candidate received his nomination without the taint of fraud? Your reference to the source of our article, attempting to discredit honorable standing, will not count for much in this part of the country. We are both known by the people of this section.

Acting Governor W. P. Thorne has pressed down upon his own brow the rebuke and censure of the people of Louisville and, in fact, the best people of the State, by pardoning Buchter, a Louisville life convict. We can not see any just reasons to warrant the liberation of such a criminal, and Gov. Thorne's statement is not sufficient to justify his acts. Evidently he was the victim of a soft plea that touched the heart and unbarred the prison doors, but he is not the victim. He is the full creature of it. He receives it as much the duty of a Governor to pardon as to refrain from it, but in every case a full investigation should be made and not lightly esteem such a high and almost sacred prerogative. Gov. Thorne must bear the responsibility of his own acts.

No paper was ever sent out by a candidate for the Presidency that received more favorable comments than did Judge Parker's letter, published last Monday week. It is not often that Republican metropolitan papers say anything favorable to a Democrat, but many of them thought that this letter is a strong State paper. Every body should take the two letters—the one issued by Roosevelt, the other by Judge Parker and carefully read them. One is full of boasting, the other in a plain, systematic way tells the people what the country needs. All Democrats are perfectly satisfied with Judge Parker's utterances.

Hon. David C. Colson, who represented the Eleventh district in Congress, and was a Colonel in the Spanish-American war, died at his late home in Middleburg last Wednesday night. He was a brilliant young man, one of the leaders of the Republican party of Kentucky, and was socially popular throughout the State. He was married about three years ago.

The pardon of Clem Buchter, the Louisville murderer, by Lieutenant Gov. Thorne, has met the disapprobation of the whole State. Thorne's political tombstone has been placed.

A GOOD WOMAN DRAID.

We desire to extend our sympathy to J. G. E. S. Faulkner, of Jamestown, who was bereft of his estimable companion last week.

She was a lady of culture and Christian character and was greatly missed. With her husband and children she had resided in Russell county about thirty-three years, but was a native of Pennsylvania, as was under the many friends gathered at the tomb to hear the last sad rites over the remains of the departed.

The surviving children should now strive the harder to comfort the father in his declining years. She who had been his counselor in prosperity and in adversity, and who was ever ready to wait the coming of her earthly loved ones. In the home circle her accustomed place is vacant; it cannot be filled, but the husband and children continue to live in the fear and admiration of the Lord it will be a reunited family. We reverently extend our condolences to the members of the stricken family.

The meeting at Zion Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor, J. P. Scruggs, assisted by Rev. Hugh Bell, of Summerville, Ky., closed Wednesday night after nine days of good sound gospel preaching. As a result there was one convert, many others interested about their eternal welfare and many of the members aroused to renewed energy in the Master's work.

LAND FOR SALE.

There are ten acres of land, more or less, on left of Glasgow road, just outside the corporate limits of Columbia, for sale. This land can be divided into building lots or it can be sold in lots of several acres. Also some land on right of the road leading from Columbia. For information call on J. E. Murrell at Adair County News office.

It is not common to find sweet-potatoes in bloom and few people are aware of this fact, yet they are blooming. Last Monday Mr. Delaney Robinson sent two vines to this office in full bloom. Mr. Robinson was informed by Mr. S. H. Pike that he had gathered the seed, planted them and raised sweet-potatoes.

Wanted, a well drilled. Apply to W. F. Jeffries.

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Last Friday night at 9 o'clock the residents of Columbia were notified that Mrs. Mary Patterson was dead. The end came at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luther Williams, Montpelier, where the deceased had been for six months. Her home was in Columbia, and she had about six or eight months ago received a stroke of paralysis from which she never recovered.

Mrs. Patterson was a daughter of Montgomery and Susan Russell, and was born and reared in the suburbs of Columbia. She was a lady of culture, possessing all the noble traits of a Christian character that go to make up a true woman.

At the close of the civil war she was married to Capt. O. B. Patterson, a popular gentleman, and with him she lived happily until his death which occurred about 11 years ago. Her husband was a farmer, and the greater portion of her married life was spent out of Columbia. In the various communities in which she lived she was known for Christian piety and loved for her many deeds of kindness.

She is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters, and three brothers and one sister. Two of her sons reside at Jamestown—W. B. and A. D. Patterson. The former is a merchant and the latter is cashier of the Bank of Jamestown. The third living son, Jo P., is a contractor at this place. Her brothers, Jo, M. and J. O. Russell and sister, Miss Kate, reside in Columbia. Mrs. Luther Williams, Montpelier, and Mrs. S. P. Miller, who lives a few miles from town, are surviving daughters.

The funeral services were held at Montpelier Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, many relatives and friends being present. Upon the conclusion of the services the remains were conveyed to this place and were interred in the family lot in the city cemetery, Friday afternoon.

Mr. Patterson was a zealous member of the Presbyterian Church, the religious services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. C. Clemens.

To all the surviving relatives the News is in sympathy.

WILL BE MARKED IN LOUISVILLE.

Mr. M. L. Grissom and Miss Rosa Flowers; Mr. Geo. A. Atkins and Miss Emma Browning, two popular and highly respected couples of Adair county, were married yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon at the Willard Hotel, Louisville. Immediately after the ceremony they left the city for the World's Fair. Mr. Grissom is a merchant at Blue, and is a gentleman of honorable standing, having friends throughout the county. His bride is a niece of Lieutenant Governor Hindman, and is one of the most highly respected ladies of Adair county.

Mr. Atkins is a prominent farmer and trader and is well-known for his genial and accommodating disposition making him a general favorite. His bride is a daughter of the late Jas. G. Browning, a sister of Messrs. Chapman and Rollin Browning. She possesses many noble traits of character.

After taking in the World's Fair and visiting other points of interest, the happy couple will return to Adair county, and about the 16th they will be at home to all their friends.

The News desires to extend its best wishes, trust that the bride will be highly enjoyable and that their lives may be devoted to so long as they may be permitted to live.

MASSONIC ELECTION.

Columbia Chapter, No. 7, Royal Arch Masons, on last Friday night, elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

T. R. Stiles—High Priest.

Sam Lewis—King.

D. L. Lowe—Scribe.

W. W. Bradshaw, Capt. Host.

E. G. Atkins—P. Sojourner.

W. D. Jones—R. A. Captain.

Y. Hall—Third Veil.

J. P. Scruggs—Second Veil.

Jo Russell, Jr.—First Veil.

Horace Jeffries—Secretary.

N. P. Paul—Treasurer.

Y. Hall—Third Veil.

The year just closed has been a prosperous one for this branch of Masonry, and the new officers start with the determination to keep up the growing interest.

We desire to state that we believe, from observation, that the Adair County News does ten times more work per month than any other office in this section of the State; and that no other print-shop has, at any time, interfered with the progress of our business in creating all the time, which leads us to conclude that we are giving entire satisfaction. There is not a county paper in the State that outstrips us in advertising, due to our large circulation. To better express the extensiveness of its circulation, we quote a traveling man who was here several years before in one hill and when they appeared above the ground he thinned the hill down to two vines. On one vine a well developed cactus appeared, while on the other was this curious looking melon. He says he never purchased a new seed of any kind and is positive that the one he planted came from a single melon—Danville Advocate.

Mr. H. N. Steel, a well-known gentleman in this section, who travels for the sale of the Martin Tobacco Company is reported missing in St. Louis. When last seen he had upon his person several diamonds and about three hundred dollars in money. His home was in the suburbs of Louisville and was in St. Louis to see the Fair. He was here a short time since, and three weeks ago he was in Kentucky. Last Monday, Mr. Steel was shown up, but robbed.

Every man should protect those who are dependent upon him with some life insurance. See J. E. Murrell.

FOR RENT.—Some houses and lots and some small farms. Apply to A. B. Cox.

FAVORS A RE-UNION.

EDITOR NEWS:

It has been suggested that a meeting be had of the old settlers of Adair county. It really seems that such a meeting would continue to the happiness of all her citizens. To meet and talk of old times and the many stirring events would be a great pleasure to the old, and perhaps entertaining and interesting to the young. Our county is one of which we should feel proud. She has produced many sons, who have achieved fame at the bar, on the bench and in the halls of legislation. We, therefore, owe it to their memory to meet and extol the virtues of those who have preceded us to the "great unknown." Let us by all means inaugurate a movement that will result in a meeting of the old settlers of Adair county and have many of her sons come from the West and other sections of our country, that we may meet them perhaps for the last time in life.

REAL ESTATE.

Is changing hands rapidly at good prices. If you want to buy or sell come and see or write to Stuarts & Tutt, Real Estate agents.

Quite a number of delegates and ministers while enroute to Franklin, last Wednesday, were robbed at Bowling Green by pickpockets who were following Sells Bros. circus. When the train stopped there was a jam and the light-fingered gentry easily got in place, and the Business Manager of the Lindsey-Wilson, was relieved of $35.00 and the Rev. T. J. Williams, of Burkesville, of $18.75. Another gentleman stated that he had lost one hundred dollars. R. W. Edwards, of Louisville, was relieved of $35.00 and $200 in coupons.

Perhaps the largest real estate deal ever made in Columbia was closed last Wednesday afternoon when Mr. John N. Conover sold Mr. J. B. Barbee the large brick hotel in the north-west corner of the public square. The consideration for the house and furniture was $10,000, cash. Mrs. M. E. Marcum will continue to run the hotel. The building is comparatively new and has been a popular house of entertainment since it was opened five or six years ago.

Has it ever occurred to the citizens of Columbia the amount of wealth some of our new comers have added to the town? An estimate has been made and it will not fall far short of $75,000. Men representing this capital have come into our midst for the purpose of making Columbia their permanent home, and will be ready at any time to assist in advancing the interest of the place. We are glad to have them and will welcome all other good citizens who want to cast their lots with us.

Mr. W. F. Jeffries bought from Mrs. Eliza Willis her residence on Burkesville street for $2,500.00. This is one of the best houses in town, being conveniently located and ample territory to have some of the country charms. Mr. Jeffries and family will be domiciled in their new home early in November.

Quarterly meeting will be held at Mt. Carmel, Saturday and Sunday, October 8 and 9th. Let all the officials be present.

S. G. Shelley, P. E.

There is a stony hog at my place—has been bad about the corn crop. Owner will please call and get it and pay for keeping; also for this notice.

As I have never seen a letter from our little village, I thought I would jot down a few items and send them in.

We are having quite a lot of sickness in this place. Mrs. F. S. Spring has typhoid fever, and Mrs. Geo. Raley has been very ill three weeks with the same disease. Mr. Logan Tucker, Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tucker, near this place, Mrs. Chas. G. Spurling, Hartford, Ind., is visiting relatives here. Mr. G. A. B. Wain, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Smith have returned from the World's Fair. Volney C. only son of Mr. W. G. Gilpin, departed this life September 21, after a brief illness of typhoid fever. Volney was an exemplary young man, and all the community sympathize with his father in his bereavement. He was married to Mrs. Zinn, Rev. J. L. Edgington officiating.

Mr. Chas. M. Raley and wife, Mrs. Annie Shirley, Campbellville, and Mr. Gay Raley, Hartford, Ind., are at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Geo. Raley.

Rev. J. L. Edgington closed his meeting here in order to attend Conference. We will have a new pastor this year, as Bro. Edgington has been with us four years.

W. W. Odwain and family were visiting in Campbellville last Sunday.

Mrs. Sue Hayner has returned from a visit to Washington county.

A FORTUNE HUNTING ARMY.
Under the mysterious influence of the present Federal administration, the work of Europeanizing our American institutions goes merrily on.

This time it is the army. Major General Henry Clark Corbin, commander of the department of the east, has been ordered in an official report a strong recommendation that officers of the army be not "permitted" to marry without the sanction of the secretary of war, who must be shown that the income of the prospective bridegroom is eminently sufficient for the support of a family.

In short, the efforts of the army must, should the General recommend them, be approved, then themselves into fortune hunters. This is the rule in the German army where the Kaiser exercises paternal and restraining influence upon his officers. It is the rule in some of the European armies. Is the American army to be Europeanized in this precise way?

If so, General Corbin should make his recommendations a little more specific. What price shall be put upon the heads of blue-blooded young lieutenants, of more mature captains, of steady and sober old colonels? For certainly no officer with a salary less than that of a brigadier could, under the conditions of society contemplated by General Corbin, afford to take a wife just because he happened to love her. A colonel's salary is but $8,550 a year; how long would such a paltry sum as that last in the whirl of Washington or Newport? Perish the thought that a colonel, even though he does not attain that rank until he is somewhere in the vicinity of fifty, should have the temerity to think he can take a wife on such a salary!

In the past, it is true, it has been one of the basest that army society has not been measured by money; even now there are old fogies, like General Chaffee, for instance, who scout the suggestion that the war department should be turned into a matrimonial bureau; but such men and such ideas are back numbers, as the saying goes. Why for the new regime? Hail the process of more Europeanization!

No officer of the army should marry until he gets to be a major general and can find a girl with a mil-bill—Atlanta Constitution

KANSAS

NEEDS, Sept. 21, 1904.

EDITOR NEWS:
The last News containing Melvin L. Whites letter reached us on the 17th inst. This is very good for the News, written in Kentucky, N. C. on the 6th and then to Columbia, Ky., and it published and then reach us on the 17th. I like to read friend Whites letter very much and would like to see to Comrade White and all other of my old Adair county friends that are now scattered through out the United States, that I am still holding forth on the same farm I settled on in the year 1850. I have done lots of hard work since I have lived here and my sympathies have always been with the working people and I have observed that the workers of the country do not have a fair chance with the owners of large Capital. I have then for some time concluded that this competitive system of government will have to give way and that a co-operative commonwealth will have to be established in its place which is Socialism. If you will grant me the privilege of Mr. E. Wain, I will tell you more fully of our vision and what I understand of Socialism. I am Socialism is called Socialism by all the people, of all the means of production and distribution and fall the things upon which the people depend for comfort, happiness and life. Many things may be privately owned, but nothing useful for human comfort, happiness and life should be monopolized.

Socialism takes all the people can employ and every one receives a just equivalent for his toil, goods will be produced for use, not for profit, and no one can monopolize the necessities of life. Private monopolies will pass away, and the people become owners of the means of production and distribution. There will be certain rights of individual ownership, yet to be defined and determined by majority vote.

There are several classes of Socialists.

1st. Communist—those who think nearly everything should be owned in common.

2d. Utopian—those who have pictured high ideals of a Socialistic state, but are charged by others with having no feasible plan of reaching the end in view.

3rd. Class-conscious—those who claim that the only way to reach Socialism is through the struggle of the wage-earning class against the capitalist class. They think the Bourgeoisie or middle class will become Socialists until the trusts have crushed them into the wage-slavery class, and that they will be more class-conscious.

4th. Revolutionary—those who believe the movement is necessarily revolutionary, either in thought, philosophy or force. They do not necessarily want a bloody revolution, but a radical change in the form of government and society.

5th. Evolutionary—those who believe Socialism to be the result of certain causes, as (1st) improved machinery which makes capital and wealth and impoverishes labor, (2d) The gift of intelligence, culture and sympathy, (3d) The intensification of the spirit of democracy, &c.

6th. Christian—those who whose in the teachings of Christ and his Apostles principles which if carried into practical effect lead to Socialism. They claim that Socialism and Christianity are altruistic, while competition and capitalism are egoistic. They believe that we can never convert this world to Christ while the present system stands.

7th. Scientific—There are two classes of scientific Socialists, one believes that the first who claim that Socialism has only to do with matter and material things and that they are guided by the law of economic determinism. The second—those who think that the ideal precedes the material or social manifestation, just as an inventor has an image on the mind before he makes a model. But that, to be scientific he must combine the ideal and the real. That a movement must have a good in view, but must grasp existing forces to reach it and use them in the effort to attainment.

As I see it, all schools and classes of Socialism are part of one great movement, that is to meet and harmonize and bend the lines of a vast orchestra, and out of the conflict of ideas will come a more perfect state of society than the world ever saw.

WORK IN SPAIN-AMERICA.

The necessity of preserving peace and of maintaining the rights of nations the Spanish-American republics has practically been forced upon the United States by our desire to maintain the Monroe doctrine. The necessity of a medicine that would actually cure stomach and bowel disorders led to the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, over fifty years ago. To-day, it is looked upon as the great American remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, poor appetite, nervousness, dizziness, heartburn, headache, and all the troubles of the stomach, liver and bowels. And because it has never been known to fail, doctors never hesitate in prescribing it to their most delicate patients. They also advise sickly women in need of a tonic and regulator to use the Bitters. We urge all sickly men and women to try a bottle at once.

The October WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION makes good the boast that it is an "all round" magazine. Besides its usual special interest to women on Fashion, Home Entertainments, Quilting, etc., there are unusual numbers of timely features. Lee Fairchild writes on "The Furry Side of a Picked Campaign"; there are four unusual unpublished portraits of the President in the past; David H. Black writes "A Year in the White House"; and "Auntie" has some interesting information as to how to get on the "Big" Mexican Revolution, the well-known writer of stories, has a thrilling description of the submarine boat. "The Power Making Terror of the Seas. The great secret, 'The King of Diamonds' begins in this number, and there are stories about the life of J. L. Harlow, Sara Annabard, Gilbert Wilson. Published by The Western Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio, one dollar a year, ten cents a copy.

ODD MENTION

Be your good friend and tell your brother good news your grandfather was. Do not talk about him in a new man, time is worth more than talk. Keep the scales clean and dried, dry or changed scales add double or triple to the work of a team.

It is easier to plug up a plumb than to stop up a leak made by a cannon ball. The time to save the dollars is when the pennies are coming in. Now for the World's Fair, if you can afford it. If you do, my price is a good blue and red home suit. No harm done if you skip the pike.

Do not wait until the storm bursts before you seek for the plow, or the field. Peter Tumbler, until the lightning strikes the grain cradle out of your hand. Quit in time.

All right to put a dollar in the bank once in a while, but do not forget to store up a kink in the heart of the little man and little woman as you go along. Kinks are worth more than dollars any day.

Any more sweet corn or other garden stuff than you used for your own use? Lots of folks in town who would be glad to buy.

Really and truly, you should read the advertisements in this paper. All are in season and signed by honest men who will do an honest business with you.

All chunks, sticks, pieces of rail and posts, worthless lumber, to fall every thing which will burn, should find a way to the wood-pile. These things will not only be useful here but will also be out of the way and they are burning and unsightly when scattered about. Brush too small for fuel may be used to stop gullies; if you are so unfortunate as to have them, if not it is best to pile and burn it.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

Nothing convinces like conviction. A live sinner needs to wear no symbol. Love usually tries to hide its weakest deeds.

A white life preaches louder than a black life.

Things that are almost right are altogether wrong.

No man finds himself until he is willing to be lost.

A little elbow grease is worth a lot of oily phrases.

Most moral influence comes from apparently small virtues.

The pervasion of a sermon often prevents its application.

The rightness of a thing does not depend on its witness.

A man is not firm in faith because he is fertilized in mind.

Living in the past only puts the headlight on the rear platform.

SOCIETY'S NEW GAME.

"Trail" is a new game in vogue. It is something new, something different. "Trail" is the name of a new game found on a popular traveling sport, is played with fifty three five cards in four colors representing a lot to be chased and caught, and four packs of hands of 10 cards each.

"Trail" has an entirely new meaning for players as they perfect their playing in an evening to evening, in marked contrast to certain recent boisterous games that lure the players at the end of an hour.

With the one pack six or ten splendid new, copyright games can be played. Two Educational games, and two games of fun, making it suitable for all members of a family.

"Trail" can be had of dealers or by post-paid, 70c, gilt edge, plain 25c. Rules for the seven games are free. CONSOLIDATED CARD GAME CO., Atlanta, Ga.

CHEAP LAMIN
For Home-seekers' and Colonies.

The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Home-seekers. Mild climate, good water, cheap building material, abundance of fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $2.50 an acre, prairie land at $4 and $5 per acre up, bottom land at $8 and $6 per acre up, improved or partially cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre up. Some fine propositions for colonies—tracts of 2,000 to 8,000 acres at $4 to $10 per acre—big money in this for a good investor. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of East Texas at $10 to $20 per acre up. Write us for information about cheap rates, excursion fares, all literature descriptive of this great country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rent you pay every year.
